This stately Carmel seagull stands comfortably amidst the ocean-smoothed rocks which line our coast, allowing the waning sunlight to warm his bulging downy breast. The gull knows, as do most Carmelites, that nesting in Carmel is one of life's fulfillments. HAPPY NEW YEAR FROM ALL OF US WHO ENJOY CARMEL YEAR AFTER YEAR AFTER YEAR . . . . .

CANNERY ROW FIRE NO. 3 UNDER INVESTIGATION

How much more of Cannery Row will go up in smoke is the question on the tips of many Peninsulan tongues, now that the third fire of the season has been extinguished.

This time there were definite evidences of arson involved and an investigation is now under way. A representative of the insurance carrier of the building seems to think that a pyromaniac is loose in Monterey. He also mentioned that only weeks ago an attempt was made to burn another cannery.

According to the Carmel Volunteer Fire Department, they were not called out on this Christmas Eve fire which caused about $250,000 of damage, because the dispatching service overlooked them during the emergency.

The Carmel Canning Company is owned by Cannery Row Development Company headed by San Francisco hotelman Ben Swig.

Sparks from the blaze blew high into the air and set small fires on the roofs of two New Monterey homes, causing very little damage, but offering a tremendous threat to the entire area.

The cannery involved is located only feet away from the building in which two well known restaurants are located, and across the street from KMBY-Radio station.

Peace in the New Year

PULITZER PRIZE WINNER MARTIN FLAVIN SUCCUMBS

Pulitzer Prize winner Martin Flavin of Carmel died yesterday in the Community Hospital from complications resulting from a fall he experienced in his daughter's home on November 26.

The 82-year-old playwright was awarded the Harper prize in 1943 for his stirring "Journey in the Dark." That year the Harper prize competition was the Pulitzer Prize.

He attained his first important success as a playwright, however, and among his most popular were "The Criminal Code," "Children of the Moon," "Cross Roads," "Broken Dishes" and "Age of Consent." At one point in his career three of his plays were running simultaneously on Broadway.

His first novel "Mr. Littlejohn" was published in 1940 and a year later he published "Corporal Cat." It was his third major work that won the Pulitzer Prize, which is on the shelves of the Harrison Memorial Library. Ten other works of Mr. Flavin are also at the library.

The writer's latest book, a travel publication, was "Red Poppies and White Marble."

He was a native of San Francisco and studied at the University of Chicago and began his writing career as a very young man.

Mr. Flavin was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity, and belonged to the Family and Olympic Clubs in San Francisco, and to the Dramatists Guild, the Players and the Dutch Treat Clubs in New York.

Season for Thieves

Every Christmas there seems to be a rash of thefts from cars and shops, however, in Carmel this year the number has not been extraordinary.

One theft was peculiar to the Village however . . . that of a purse snatching occuring at the Wayside Inn, 7th and Mission.

Shortly before 9 p.m. Friday evening two visitors from Silver Spring, Maryland were approaching their room at the motel when a man in his late teens or early 20's snatched the lady's purse from her hands. The thief ran to a parked car, entered it, and he and the driver sped away. The woman's husband gave pursuit, grabbing at the automobile's door handle. He was dragged to the ground and sustained injury to his knee.

Approximately $100 in cash, blank checks, credit cards and other items were taken in the purse.

Burglars entered the Guitar Shop through a rear window, apparently, and took a $460 guitar and a case valued at over $60.

The Tuck Box reported a burglary of approximately $50.

A local resident reported recently that his automobile had been stolen from his garage, which operated electronically. He left his keys in the car!

Valuable items were also reported stolen from a parked car, which was locked. A small hole was knocked into the side window large enough for a "greedy" hand to open the door.

The Japanese Shop on Dolores between 6th and Ocean reported missing a 200-pound stone lantern from the entrance to the shop. The item was valued at $350.

Last week two more burglaries were reported, and in each case windows were broken by the burglars to gain entrance. The property stolen from one of the homes was a $300 mink stole, a ring and an imitation pearl necklace. A real pearl necklace was overlooked.

Pine Inn Entertainment

Nancy Ballard playing her harp at the Pine Inn each evening during the holidays at 6:30, made a charming picture reflected in the mirror behind her. A great, beautifully decorated Christmas tree beside her, was also reflected. The sight and sound fitted the warm, old-fashioned atmosphere of the much-loved lobby.

Carollers at The Park

A motley group of carollers gathered at Devendorf Park Saturday evening as the Carmel Christian Youth group composed of children from all faiths passed out words and lighted candles to all who wished to join them.

Led by Miss Jo Brazell, adult advisor, the group included children of all ages and grown-ups, Episcopal minister Lloyd Johnston, a couple of Catholic nuns and "hippies" in full dress regalia.

Calendar of Events

TWELFTH NIGHT TREE BURNING AT BEACH at 13th St. Jan. 5, Friday at 6 p.m. Dancing, games, movies at All Saints Episcopal Church Center afterwards. Everyone invited. Closing New Year dedication—9 p.m.

Theatre Review

THE LAST SAFARI, Stewart Granger is cast as an embittered white hunter determined to kill a particular bull Elephant which in turn had killed a friend of Granger's. He is, however, bugged by a rude young American who insists on going with him on the adventure. Filmed in Kenya.

"THE TAMING OF THE SHREW", a comedy by Shakespeare, has had audiences laughing for almost 400 years. The shrew is evil-tempered Katharina. In the motion picture version, Elizabeth Taylor is the shrew. And the man who tames her, Petruchio, is played by Richard Burton.

ULYSSES. By resourceful film techniques at some points plus a willingness merely to illustrate voice-over passages at others, Director Joseph Strick and an excellent cast have rendered James Joyce's great novel in absorbing cinematic terms.

FESTIVAL. Murray Lerner has assembled an engrossing chronicle of four years at the Newport Folk Festival. Singers from Joan Baez, Peter, Paul and Mary, from Bob Dylan to Buffy Sainte-Marie. There's a great deal of music but also interviews.

THE BIBLE Director John Huston has spent 18 million while filming the first 22 chapters of Genesis in epic terms. The tedious results will have little appeal to those who do not accept fundamental teachings. The final sequences of Abraham show some value, however.

VALLEY OF THE DOLLS for more than a year has been the talk of the country. Frank and fascinating contemporary entertainment has come to screen life. 20th Century Fox is releasing this panavision de luxe color adaptation. Barbara Parkins of Peyton Place and the well-bred New Englander arrive in New York with bright-eyed innocence. Patty Duke, Sharon Tate and Susan Hayward are in the cast. Also starring are four handsome leading men who provide the romantic interest. Essentially the story focuses on four women caught up in the heady world of show business and follows their lives as the tensions and disappointments increase and some of them turn to pills and stimulants for "escape."

WAIT UNTIL DARK. A suspenseful thriller in which a blind girl, trapped by thugs who try to make her reveal the whereabouts of a cache of heroin, outwits her torturers.

COOL HAND LUKE, Paul Newman in well-made tragedy about chain gang. Member trying to make peace with himself without submitting to unjust authorities. Good photography.

MAN FOR ALL SEASONS. Magnificent film adadaptation of Robert Bolt's play, stars Paul Scofield, recreating role of Sir Thomas Moore whose refusal to pledge his conscience to King Henry VIII precipitated his martyrdom.

'MARY, MARY' SUCCESS AT STUDIO THEATRE

By Hal Shield

The warm atmosphere of The Studio Theatre and Restaurant in its presentation of "Mary, Mary," a three-act comedy directed by Don Osborn, offered five players of varying talents. It seems almost inconceivable that Mary (Mary Holland) could have been so worldly and knowledgeable and at times so exasperatingly naive. At best a difficult role but well done by her namesake.

Jim Jordan as Bob was very clever and showed quality as a thespian.

Byng Robbins as Dirk makes his stage debut, yet he possessed all of the finesse necessary for the role and did a remarkably fine job. If he cares to pursue this field in lieu of his radio activities, he could be successful.

Old smoothy, Norton Goldman (Oscar), previously seen in many local plays, did his best to keep everything on an even keel and had much to do with the maneuvering to bring Mary and Bob together.

Tiffany (Mary L. Adams) seemed to catch Bob on the rebound but gracefully backed out of the situation that she could see had many pitfalls.

The play seemed to lag a little in the second act, but all in all the action was good and is recommended for an enjoyable evening. This weekend the stars will have all settled in their parts.

The Ullestads have remodeled a house on Mission near Santa Lucia in which all the draperies and much of the furniture upholstery was made from materials woven by Mrs. Ullestad. She has collected hand weaving from many parts of the world.

The Guild's next meeting will be held at the home of Alma Anderson on January 10 at 1 p.m.

Speech and Hearing Benefit at Cinema 70

The Premiere showing of Thoroughly Modern Millie on Wednesday, January 17, at Cinema 70 in Del Monte Center will be sponsored jointly by the Auxiliary of the Monterey Institute for Speech and Hearing and the Zonta Club of the Monterey Peninsula.

Proceeds will go to the Speech and Hearing Institute and Children's House. Tickets may be obtained from auxiliary and club members or the Steinbeck Theatre office.

Mrs. Newman is publicity chairman of MISH; Mrs. Earl Brown MISH president, and Mrs. Gamble president of Zonta.

Carmel Flavor

"A Christmas card with the Carmel flavor" was the request of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lowther, residents of Carmel since October. The Pine Cone printed cards showing them on the ocean shore.

Mr. Lowther retired from United Air Cleaner Co. of Chicago where he was research engineer.

The Lowthers' decision to settle in Carmel resulted from a weekend visit here last April, with Esther Johnson. Her enthusiasm for Carmel and its obvious advantages persuaded them to make it their home.

Louise and Bill are busy remodelling their home, in typical Carmel fashion, making new friends and entertaining visitors.

OBITUARIES

Charles U. Fonteneau, 68, pioneer California highway builder, who with his wife, Edith, have been long-time residents of Carmel, died in San Jose last Friday.

Mr. Fonteneau's mother owned one of the first homes in Carmel built in 1906 at San Carlos and 11th.

He also leaves three daughters, Raymond D. (Edith Marie) Benson of Carmel, Mrs. Betty Lou Asher of Germany, Mrs. Annie Laurie Hedges of Sacramento, nine grandchildren and one great grandchild. Paul Mortuary was in charge of services.

Community Theatre Tours

By Carolyn Elstob

That the Christmas season is the "time for giving" is expressed each year by the two branches of the Community Theatre of Monterey Peninsula (the Golden Bough Players of the Circle Theatre and the Children's Theatre classes) with special performances presented in all parts of the Peninsula and free to all.

On Thursday morning, December 14, members of the Junior League of Monterey Peninsula, who underwrite the county-wide tours of the Children's Theatre, crowded the Circle to capacity to see "Beauty and the Beast." The 17th century fairy tale, adapted for stage presentation by the Theatre Class Director Marcia Gambrell Hovick, held the adult audience and students of the Palo Colorado School spellbound.

John Mearns, son of the James B. Mearns of Carmel, appeared in the dual role of the "Beast" and the "Prince Charming;" Gwyneth Hovick, daughter of Marcia Hovick, was "Beauty;" Liz McGinley, daughter of the Larry J. McGinleys, and Kathy Terman, daughter of the Fred Termans, were the beautiful and heartless sisters. David O'Brien of Monterey enacted the role of the Merchant and father of the three sisters. Alex Wilsdon, son of the Richard Wilsdons of Carmel, completed the cast in the heart-warming role of "Petit Pierre."

"The Beast" in "Beauty and the Beast."

The Junior Leaguers, headed by Mrs. Wilsdon, newly-elected 2nd vice-president of the Community Theatre Board of Governors, gathered at Sans Souci Restaurant for luncheon. Mrs. George Bud Hobbs of Carmel Valley was chairman of the day.

Since early October four casts of children, six to 17 years old, have performed "Beauty and the Beast" in schools throughout the county. The tours will continue after the holidays, through February.

"Mikado"

Earlier in the week some 200 youngsters, students of the Patton School at Ft. Ord, welcomed Community Theatre Director-Manager Norman C. McPhee, and two "stars" of "The Mikado" cast as well as the production pianist, Mrs. Lollie Schwab.

Mr. McPhee earned rapt attention as he told his audience the story of the world famed Gilbert and Sullivan operetta. But when singer-actor John Hicks of Carmel

Beethoven Bust to be In German - Opera House

Louis Mayer, whose bust of Beethoven at left was used as their greeting this year, is a part time Carmelite. He and his wife, the former Dora Hagemeyer, for over twenty years Poetry Editor of the Pine Cone, divide their time between their home on Randall Way and their home in Fishkill, New York which has been his studio for many years. They frequently visit Germany.

The Beethoven bust will be placed in the Opera House in Frankfurt, Germany next year.

The statute of St. Francis in the courtyard of the Carmel Mission was done by Louis Mayer.

He has also done a head of Lincoln which is in the Lincoln Memorial Museum in Washington; a bronze cast of it is over the Negro Cemetery there. The bust he did of Walt Whitman was stolen from an exhibition, he said, but peculiarly it turned up later at Whitman House.

His bust of Albert Schweitzer, which was purchased by the city of Frankfurt after his death, won the German publishers Peace Prize in 1952. He became well acquainted with Schweitzer in Germany and later renewed acquaintance in Aspen, Colorado.

He and his wife met through a bust Mrs. Grace Flanders bought from him for the Cherry Foundation. Mrs. Flanders sent him a poem by Dora Hagemeyer, which started a romantic correspondence which led to their later meeting and marriage.

Friends of Photography

The public is cordially invited by the FRIENDS OF PHOTOGRAPHY to attend the opening exhibit of the photographs of Aaron Siskind on FRIDAY, JANUARY 5th, 1968 at 8:00 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. at the CARMEL PHOTOGRAPHY CENTER. The exhibit will be on view through February 4th, 1968.

Winter Gallery hours are from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. (closed Mondays).

Aaron Siskind, one of the country's most recognized contemporary photographers, was born in New York City in 1903. He received a Bachelor of Social Science degree from the College of the City of New York in 1926. In 1932 he became actively interested in photography and made it his prime concern in life and communications. Siskind said:

"When I make a photograph I want it to be an altogether new object, complete and self contained, whose basic condition is order-(unlike the world of events and actions whose permanent condition is change and disorder)."

Siskind is presently Head of Photography at the Institute of Design, Illinois Institute of Technology.

His work has been widely exhibited in major museums and universities throughout the world. He has been published in leading magazines and his work has been the subject of several books.

Part of the exhibit is through the Courtesy of the George Eastman House, Rochester, N. Y., and part is from Siskind's personal collection.

Kellogg Gallery Closed

The Jean Kellogg Gallery will be closed until January 15 when it will open with an exhibit of oils and prints. Included will be paintings by Akio of Japan, as well as some by Jean Kellogg, Mrs. James Dickie, herself.

Examples of direct printing from nature, done by Marian Meygers, are being shown at the Tantamount Theatre during December. Mrs. Weygers and her artist husband, Alex Weygers, came to the Valley 23 years ago and established their studio in La Rancheria.

These days the axiom that everything that goes up must come down does not apply to prices.

A TRUE CARMEL-ite

A soul from earth to heaven went,
To whom the Saint, as he drew near,
Said: "Sir, what claim do you present
To us to be admitted here?"
"In Carmel I was born and bred,
And in her schools was educated;
I afterward at U.C. read,
And was with honors graduated."
In Pebble Beach—a charming spot—
I own a villa, lawns, arcades,
And last, a handsome burial lot
In Carmel Highlands' hallowed shades."
Saint Peter mused and shook his head,
Then, as a gentle sigh he drew,
"Go back to Carmel, friend," he said,
"Heaven isn't good enough for you."

A parody by
Roland Eberhart of San Jose

Telephone Girls Remember Boys Overseas

Thanks to the efforts of the girls in Pacific Telephone's Monterey Traffic Department, Christmas was a merrier time for servicemen in Viet Nam.

Keeping with the festive spirit of the season, the girls started the "Rose Project," a plan designed to provide cards and packages for servicemen who might otherwise have been forgotten during the holiday season.

Through a combination of raffles, bake sales and cash donations, enough funds were gathered to mail 24 packages overseas. The boxes were addressed to the chaplains of various units who distributed them to servicemen for Christmas.

School Employees

Don Robison of Carmel, MPC's audio-visual assistant was recently elected president of the local chapter of California School Employees Association.

John Beech of Carmel Highlands was elected treasurer.

The chapter Christmas party was held at the Hotel La Playa on December 16.

Reviews for Young Readers

By Allene Fremier

ZEELY is an intriguing person to the two children who have come to spend the summer at their Uncle Ross' farm. Virginia Hamilton has written this touching story about Zeely Tayber . . . "more than six and a half feet tall, thin and deeply dark as a pole of Ceylon ebony." She and her father raise hogs. Because of her height and her regal bearing, young Elizabeth Perry is sure she must be a queen. Elizabeth learns something about herself as she finally hears Zeely's story. This is a good story, especially for young girls who do some day dreaming.

BEAUTY AND THE TRAITOR, by Milton Lomask is the story of Mrs. Benedict Arnold. Margaret Shippen was nineteen when she met General Arnold, a widower twice her age. The story moves along toward Arnold's treason, with many speculations on the part of the author as to what each was thinking. His suppositions are well supported by old family letters, especially the ones dealing with the Shippen family and household.

Legend says that Emperor Charlemagne, who nearly lost his whole army due to the plague, found the cure for the sickness by acting upon what an angel told him in a dream. He was to shoot an arrow and whatever it hit would contain the cure. Young Pepin, a serf, finds the arrow and brings it to the emperor. THE EMPEROR'S ARROW, by Burke Boyce is an exciting and well-written story for the younger readers.

For both visual and oral fun, THE MOUNTAIN-BOUNDER, by Heinrich Hoffman, is the book. A tiny (10 poems in five-by-five) collection of Hoffman's rhymes, done nearly a century ago, it has both humor and charm.

PETER'S CHAIR, by Ezra Keats offers involving illustrations as well as a story with a moral, but not a moralizing story. Peter has a new baby sister and she gets his old cradle, his high chair and his crib. Peter takes some of his remaining treasures and decides to leave home. When he finds that he can no longer fit in his little blue chair, he rejoins the family and suggests that he and his father paint the chair pink, for his little sister.

PARTY PLANS . . .

by Phyllis Jervey

Here's a new and unusually tasty version of Eggs Benedict . . . that takes its flavor plus from convenient and versatile canned corned beef hash. The smooth, creamy sauce uses another convenient product as its starter . . . double rich, expertly seasoned canned condensed cream of celery soup. Round out the menu with a fruit salad, extra English muffins and jam for heartier appetites, and milk and coffee.

Leisurely Late New Year's Brunch

New Year's Day has arrived and the past two week's hectic pace happily slows down. Now is the time to treat your pals, household (and yourself) to a long, leisurely late noonans or bountiful brunch. Since this is a day of relaxation for everyone, be sure to keep preparations simple and hot . . . all but the variety of iced fruit juices as a starter. Everything is ready on the dining room buffet or table. Electric warmers and chafing dishes, percolators and all that makes for a modern "touch-button" Olde English country-style breakfast is in order. Each to his own when and what he or she selects. Perfect in this setting is an easy and unusually delicious version of Eggs Benedict. For those who prefer scrambled eggs, we suggest a different way to serve this time-honored favorite with condiments. Or creamed finnan haddie is another winner with a variety of breads such as toasted English muffins, croissants, brioches and coffee cake. Plenty of coffee, tea and hot chocolate or ovaltine for the children since this is a party for all ages. Cushions on the floor opposite a roaring fireplace invite the agile while others use TV tables. Now to the directions for this fun food.

Easy Eggs Benedict

Two cans (10½ oz., each) condensed cream of celery soup; 1 cup milk; 4 T. butter; 4 T. lemon juice; 4 egg yolks, slightly beaten; 2 cans (15½ oz., each) corned beef hash, cut in 8 slices; 4 English muffins, split with one's fingers (no knife, please) and toasted; 8 of the freshest jumbo eggs, poached; chopped parsley.

In large saucepan, stir soup until smooth, gradually add milk, butter, lemon juice and yolks. Cook over low heat 5 minutes or until just thickened so be on guard, stirring constantly. (Party Plans thinks it very wise to use the fool-proof California Aunt Penny's canned hollandaise if you are easily distracted). Keep warm. Meanwhile, brown hash slices in greased or Teflon skillet; place on muffin halves. Top with well-cooked eggs; spoon sauce over and garnish with parsley. Have paprika, salt and a pepper grinder on the table or buffet. Serves 8.

Scrambled Eggs With Condiments

Beat fluffy scrambled eggs, adding salt and pepper with a light touch. Butter a chafing dish, pour in eggs just before activity seems to be starting around the house. Put over low heat. Leave directions that the condiment tray, also on low electric server, is up to everyone's choice. This is being dreamed up on the typewriter by your Party Plans inventor: Have heat-proof little dishes of broiled crisped ham bits or bacon in No. 1 dish; No. 2 dish: grated coconut; No. 3 dish: chopped green pepper and pimiento, mixed; No. 4 dish: shrimp or crabmeat in cream of vegetable non-diluted soup with a dash of curry stirred in. Top your scrambled eggs with whatever.

Creamed Finnan Haddie

Two lbs. finnan haddie fillets; 1 grated onion; shake of Tabasco sauce; sherry; butter; 2 cans cream of mushroom soup, undiluted; 1 large can sliced mushrooms; Worcestershire sauce, salt, pepper, cayenne, dry mustard to taste; 2 cups cooked dry rice.

Soak fillets several hours, drain, remove skins and bones. Break into medium pieces, then cover with a super sauce made from rest of ingredients. Cook in electric skillet with extra one of cooked flaky rice. Serves 6-8. And don't over salt . . . Frosty "ginger beer" (mixed gingerale and beer) helps if you do!

Medical Emergency

Shortly before 10 p.m. Friday, the Carmel Vounteer Firemen were called for medical assistance to Sambo's Restaurant in Carmel Plaza.

A Fort Ord man suffered chest pains and was taken to Community Hospital as a medical ecergency.

Happy New Year

New Pastor and Assistant at the Mission

New pastor of Carmel Mission Basilica is the very Rev. Monsignor James Marron who was made a Papal Chamberlain in July, 1965. He will take the place of Bishop Harry A. Clinch who was recently made Bishop of Monterey, the new diocese that includes four counties.

Msgr. Marron comes here from Arroyo Grande where he was pastor for 16 years.

He will be assisted by the Reverend Felix Migliazzo who returned recently from missionary work in the Islands of the Pacific for three years.

Ordained a priest in 1949, Father Felix for 15 years served as Vocational Director and Public Relations Director in New York, Detroit, Chicago and California.

We're wishing that all good things may come your way this year, and for many, many years.

And to our fine patrons, our sincere thanks.

Traditional Tree Burning On Beach

On January 5th, at 6 p.m., there will be the traditional Twelfth-night tree burning on the beach below 13th Street. The whole town is inyited to bring their Christmas trees for one great bonfire.

Until this year, an All Saints' Episcopal Church activity, this year the Epiphany event will be shared with the children of the Carmel Christian Youth Group which is composed of children from all the churches and their families, according to Miss Jo Brazell, adult advisor.

Afterwards at All Saints' Parish House, there will be a big family night from all the churches who will bring refreshments.

The sisters of the Mission have been persuaded by the new priest, Father Felix, to play their guitars; there will be cards and games, movies for the little ones; and one of the dance bands at the high school will provide music for dancing.

The evening of the Epiphany will close with a dedication to the New Year led by Father David Hill.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

"Christian Science" is the subject of this Sunday's Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world.

"Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: . . . For thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream," is the Golden Text from Isaiah.

Youngest Bishop In Carmel

The youngest bishop in the Anglican Communion, the Right Reverend C. Edward Crowther, was celebrant at All Saints' Episcopal Church last week.

Only 38, he was consecrated bishop in Kimberley, South Africa in 1965 where his views on apartheid got him deported by the government. He is writing a book about his experiences.

At present a visiting fellow at the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions in Santa Barbara, he and his family spent the weekend in Carmel.

Why your PG&E bill goes up when the temperature goes down:

You're indoors more and need more heat.
You're cooking more hot meals.
You need more lighting.
And you enjoy more TV and stereo.

So naturally, your winter PG&E bill goes up. When the outside temperature goes up again, your bill will go back down again.

appeared in the magnificent regalia plus the up-slanted eyebrows and down-drooping mustache, as the great Mikado, there were squeals and cheers of delight. His singing of "A More Humane Mikado" won thunderous applause.

Close upon the stately exit of the Emperor of Japan, onto the Patton School platform hopped and strutted "Ko-Ko, the Lord High Executioner" complete with his up-standing pigtail and his famous Snicker-Snee. Robert Heater of Carmel, actor of wide experience, stated later in the day, "I've never known a greater audience and I've never had more fun!" His singing of "I've Got a Little List" was followed by "Tit-willow, Tit-willow" with the assistance of a diminutive blonde miss from the audience. Completely forgetting school rules the spectators stomped and whistled.

Formal thanks for the performance was given by Patton School teacher, Miss Barbara Kendall who is also a member of the Golden Bough Players.

IF YOU BUILT IN CARMEL,
WOULD YOUR SPECS SOUND LIKE THIS?

LOT: Larger than most of the Carmel lots, say 53'x100', to be able to have a double garage. Located in quiet neighborhood close to downtown Carmel and convenient to bus.

EXTERIOR: Redwood siding, painted sparkling white; shake roof, of course. Deck on the sunny South side. Minimum-care landscaping—gravel and the like.

INTERIOR: Large rooms. Living room 35'x18' with beam ceiling and very attractive fireplace. Bedrooms 16'x16' and 15'x15', each with its own bath and one with a dressing room. Built-in kitchen appliances, of course.

If this sounds like something you've been thinking of building, why not look at our 11-year-old home already built, beautifully cared for, draped and carpeted, mature plantings. Built by the present owner to high standards. Her Del Mesa home is ready for her, and she's ready to SELL!

Vietnam Casualty

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Antone of Carmel ended their Christmas day with heavy hearts as the news came, via their daughter-in-law, that their son, Frank George Antone, had been killed in Vietnam.

A 21-year-old Navy veteran, Frank was killed while on Navy patrol duty on December 23. He had served an earlier tour of two years in Vietnam. Native of Germany, he and his wife and young son, Richard, had established a home in Gilroy.
